Office of Caribbean Affairs

1-23-95 Mr. and Mrs. George de Mohrenschildt
Classified by 203002/EA
Declassify on: OADR JFK

The following information has been received from Ambassador Thomas, Port-au-Prince, Haiti:

1. In view considerable attention paid in NYTimes Nov. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. George de Mohrenschildt, and their testimony before Warren Commission, Dept should have following facts about their activities in Haiti.

"2. In an incident arising out of alleged custody of a dog, Mrs. de Mohrenschildt recently created a public scene in EMB reception area, pursued EMB receptionist (local employee) into ladies' room and slapped her. Mrs. de Mohrenschildt then returned later, berated Marine Guard, and cursed receptionist to my face. This incident only culmination of recent series of unpleasant episodes in which de Mohrenschildts involved, including attempt muscle in on EMB Commissary. As result, and to protect my staff against such arrogant and brutal treatment, I have told de Mohrenschildts that before they may take up any matter of business in EMB, they must see DCM, who will make necessary arrangements if business is justified.

3. It is reliably reported to me that Mohrenschildts are habitually given to highly disparaging remarks against Americans here, American institutions and American policy. They are only American citizens in Haiti who are reported to me as voicing such views.

4. [Even more seriously, the long series of reports from utterly reliable confirm that Hochenschulz is in frequent and close contact (several times each week) 10
